

The SmartComplaints tool, website, and its content ("Content") are provided by Global Exponential Technologies, Inc. ("GxT") as a service to its users and is intended to be informative and helpful. This website uses artificial intelligence ("AI") software to generate content and information, such as complaint classifications. GxT strives to improve the accuracy and quality of content generated by its AI tools. However, the content or information produced by SmartComplaints may not be accurate, complete, timely, or applicable to all situations, and it should not be considered as professional or personalized advice. Any use of such content is at the sole risk of the user. Each user should consider independently verifying any information contained in any content generated by SmartComplaints. GxT is not responsible for and will not be liable for any damages, including, without limitation, direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, whether under a contract, tort or any other theory of liability, arising in connection with any party's use of SmartComplaints or in connection with any failure of performance, error, omission, interruption, defect, delay in operation or transmission, computer virus, line system failure, loss of data, or loss of use related to this website or any website operated by any third party or any contents of this SmartComplaints or any other web application, tool, or website, even if GxT is aware of the possibility of such damages.

No content generated by this website is intended to be offensive or discriminatory. If you find any content that is offensive or discriminatory, please report it to GxT
